

Pédagogie collégiale

Ideas, research and pedagogical practices in higher education

Summary

Spring-Summer 2023 | Vol. 36, n° 3

Pédagogie collégiale is a triannual journal whose mission is to guide interventions in college education by presenting rich and varied information, to fuel pedagogical reflection and exchange, and to promote innovative teaching practices. The journal presents articles written by individuals in the field of higher education, especially at the college level.

Cover

Naïm Blais, a student at Collège Ahuntsic, stood out in a creative challenge launched by the AQPC, in collaboration with the college's graphic design department, to first-year Graphic Design students. The artwork on the cover of this issue was chosen among dozens of others created in the course Langage visuel: expression. The mandate was to experiment with different image composition techniques using different materials, tools and techniques, including collage.
